

GOING TO THE PARK MAD LIBS

This morning I woke up and it was a _____ (adjective) spring day! I _____ (verb) to dad and ask if we can go to the park. Before you know it, I am _____ (verb) into our _____ (vehicle) and we are on our way! When I get into the park I am greeted by a lovely _____ (animal). I take a deep breath in and I smell the beautiful _____ (flower), I am so excited to be here. I look over at the swing set and I see my two friends _____ (name 1) and _____ (name 2). I _____ (verb) over to them because I am so _____ (adjective) to see them. _____ (name 1) decides that we should see who can swing the highest. While I'm on the swing, I go so high that I almost touch the _____ (noun). I win the competition and then _____ (name 2) decides that we should play hide and seek. I look around and quickly hid behind a _____ (adjective) tree. I think to myself she'll never find me here! After hiding for what feels like 100 _____ (silly word), _____ (name 2) finally finds me. Now, it's my turn to try and find my friends. I count to _____ (number), to give my friends a few seconds to hide. I look around and I see _____ (name 1) hiding behind a _____ (noun). Gotcha, I yelled! I have him help me try and find _____ (name 2). Soon after, we find _____ (name 2) hiding at the top of the slide. We spend the next _____ (number) minutes climbing up the playground and then _____ (verb) down the slide. It was so much fun _____ (exclamation) I scream as I slide down the slide. Before I know it, dad is calling my name and telling me it's time to go _____ (noun). I say goodbye to my friends and hope to see them again soon. I _____ (verb) back into our _____ (vehicle) and we leave the park. I think to myself, this was the _____ (adjective) day ever! I can't wait to go back to the park again soon!
