

_____ (girl name 1) woke up very _____ (adjective). It was her first time going to the zoo. Her friends, _____ (boy name 1) and _____ (girl name 2), were coming with her as well. It was their first time going to the zoo and they wanted to see a _____ (animal 1). "It's very cold today _____ (girl name 1), so put on a _____ (piece of clothing)," her mom told her.

They were finally at the zoo. "Wow!" _____ (girl name 1) exclaimed. The zoo was very _____ (adjective). Inside the zoo _____ (girl name 1) saw 3 _____ (adjective) _____ (reptile), 2 _____ (adjective) _____ (bird 1), 10 _____ (adjective) _____ (amphibian), and 1 _____ (adjective) _____ (fish), but no _____ (animal 1). This made _____ (girl name 1) _____ (adjective). "When can we see the _____ (animal 1)?" asked _____ (girl name 2). _____ (girl name 1) also wanted to know. "Not yet," _____ 's (girl name 1) mom answered. "Before we see the _____ (animal 1), we have to eat lunch," _____ 's (girl name 1) mom stated. For lunch, _____ (boy name 1) brought a _____ (food 1), _____ (girl name 2) brought a _____ (food 2), and _____ (girl name 1) brought a _____ (food 3). It was also time for the animals to eat. _____ (girl name 1) saw a _____ (bear) eating bamboo, and a _____ (animal 2) eating leaves.

"What's that noise?" _____ (boy name 1) asked. "Where is it coming from?" _____ (girl name 2) wondered. _____ (girl name 1) did not know but the noise was very _____ (adjective). _____ (boy name 1) thought it was the _____ (animal 3) _____ (verb) and _____ (girl name 2) thought it was the _____ (animal 4) _____ (verb). All three of the friends _____ (verb) as they looked for the noise. "There!" _____ (girl name 2) pointed. It was the _____ (animal 1) _____ (verb). _____ (girl name 1) and her friend were _____ (adjective) they were able to see the _____ (animal 1).

On the way home _____ 's (girl name 1) mom asked where they wanted to go next time. "To the _____ (place 1)," _____ (boy name 1) replied "I want to see the _____ (animal 5)," _____ (boy name 1) said. "And I want to see the _____ (bird 2)," _____ (girl name 1) declared. _____ (girl name 1) was _____ (adjective) she went to this trip and could not wait go to the _____ (place 1) next.

